

Part 4: FOTC Accompaniment to Hearing (to be completed by FOTC volunteer during hearing)

Limited Scope Agreement (applicant must sign before the hearing)

The services provided by the legal volunteer are done as a Friend of the Court and are limited to the information and assistance given today at my hearing. No current or ongoing attorney-client relationship is created by the provision of today's services.

I understand that the volunteer here today will accompany me to my hearing and assist me, if possible, with informing the court of how I would like to proceed in my case. The volunteer will not make any legal arguments or provide any legal guidance today or in the future. The volunteer present today will not represent me today or going forward unless explicitly discussed.

Everything I share with the volunteer present today will remain confidential. The volunteer today will not disclose any information I share with them, except as previously authorized.

This Scope of Services and Authorization has been explained and/or translated to me in a language I understand
